Capstone is the sole owner, publisher and holds all copyrights for these products and has world-wide distribution rights. In addition, as sole owner of our print files, interactive and digital content, we are able to customize and ship large orders directly to the customer. Capstone is well known in the industry for their quick turn-times, fulfillment rates and exceptional customer service.

Your local sales representatives may also be able to offer you additional seasonal promotional offers and special packages that are only available direct from Capstone.

We look forward to providing educators with great products in a timely manner. Please contact me if you need further information.

Kind regards,

Connie Ruyter
