The Charles E. Gorton High School

Academy of Medical Professions

Smart Scholars Early College High School Program

PERFORMANCE BASED CONTRACT GUIDELINES

1. WHAT IS THE PURPOSE AND SCOPE OF THE SERVICE? (Describe in detail any services to be provided or materials to be purchased)

This initiative will provide Gorton High School students in the Academy of Medical Professions (AMP) Smart Scholars Early College High School (Gorton), the opportunity to earn college credits by taking concurrent enrollment credit college level credit courses at Gorton. Farmingdale State College (FSC) will offer seven 3-credit courses to the students selected by Gorton to be given during the 2022-2023 academic year, plus an additional summer course TBD.

The services will include the following FSC courses:

HIS 117 World Civilization I – A survey of major non-Western civilizations and their interaction with one another, as well as with the European West from antiquity through the Early Modern Period. The course will explore ancient polytheistic traditions, the foundations of major world religions (Hinduism, Buddhism, Islam), and the rise of Christianity as a global faith. It will also address non-Western social, political, and economic systems in East Asia, South Asia, the Muslim World, Sub-Saharan Africa, and pre-Columbian America.

HIS 118 World Civilization II – A survey of the developing world and its interaction with the West since 1700, the course will explore the chaotic effects of the non-Western world's interaction with European imperial powers, the United States, and Soviet Union, focusing on social, economic, cultural, and political change in East Asia, South Asia, the Middle East, Sub-Saharan Africa, and Latin America. The major themes of the course will center on imperialism, nationalism, modernization, the World Wars, and the Cold War.

HIS 121 U.S. History to Reconstruction – A discussion of the development of the United States from its English origins through Reconstruction, this course shows how a new civilization arose out of revolution, independence, new governmental institutions, and equalitarianism, and illustrating the results of the westward movement, and the causes and consequences of the Civil War.

HIS 122 U.S. History since Reconstruction – A historical evaluation of American society, assessing Reconstruction, immigration, the nature of imperialism, progressivism, World War I and II, the Cold War, and contemporary American life.

MTH 110 Statistics – Basic concepts of probability and statistical inference. Included are the binominal, normal, and chi-square distributions. Practical applications are examined. Computer assignments using Minitab form an integral part of the course.

HPW 101 – Perspectives on Health and Wellness – This course examines major contemporary public/individual health issues as an applied social science. It incorporates theoretical as well as practical applications in the health/wellness field. Emphasis is placed on social/behavioral development enhancement strategies at various life stages. HPW 101 compares the public health status of groups by variables such as socioeconomic position, environment, lifestyle behaviors, and genetics. Various health behaviors are analyzed, evaluated, and compared to standards. Preventive nutrition behaviors are addressed to aid in controlling chronic social problems such as obesity and malnutrition. Additionally, this course discusses past/current government policy and politics in structuring the public health of the United States.

Summer College Course to be determined.

2. AMOUNT OF SERVICE?

(Set forth the monetary value of the proposed agreement and quantities and/or amounts of time required to be devoted to the contract and describe where services are to be provided as specified in Schedule “B”)

Farmingdale State College will offer seven concurrent enrollment courses (3 semester hour credits) at Charles E. Gorton High School to be given during the 2022-2023 academic year, plus an additional summer course TBD. The cost breakdown is outlined in Schedule B. A link to the registration website will be made available to the high school administration to share with students and parents. All student requests to register are collected through this site.
